Scholarship winners named

Brandon Gingrich of LeRoy, Michigan; Elizabeth Luedtke of Larsen, Wisconsin and James Weber of Vassar, Michigan were all selected to win a $500 scholarship through NorthStar Cooperative. Created in 2005, the NorthStar Cooperative Scholarship program is open to all stockowners and their children who are currently enrolled in post-high school study in the field of agriculture.

A freshman at Michigan State University (MSU), Gingrich is completing a four-year degree in Animal Science. Graduating first in his class from Pine River High School in May, 2008, Gingrich received numerous awards for his academic achievements. Gingrich was involved in 4-H for ten years, was captain of the Pine River Varsity Cross Country Team and a member of the National Honor Society.

Gingrich is the son of Craig and Amy Martin of Gingrich Meadows, Inc. in LeRoy, Michigan.

A sophomore at the University of Wisconsin – Platteville, Luedtke is majoring in Crop and Soil Science. Luedtke is actively involved at college and is a member of Sigma Alpha, Agronomy Club and Ag Council. Additionally, her academic excellence has earned her a spot on the Chancellors List and the Deans List. Actively involved in 4-H, Luedtke was previously a member and teen leader and now serves as a leader. Additionally, she was a member of FFA and the National Honor Society and has served as a Sunday School Teacher. Luedtke is the daughter of Dean and Mary Ann of Luedtke Brother's of Zittau.

Weber is a student of the Dairy Management Program at Michigan State University. A graduate of Millington High School, Weber played Varsity Soccer earning Most Valuable Player Offense and Defense Awards. A member of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, Weber serves as an usher and volunteer for many of the church's events. Weber assists on his family's dairy farm which is owned by his parents Duane and Sandra.
